PALESTINE GROUP OFF TO LONDON

REPRESENTATIVES of President Truman's special cabinet committee on Palestine are shown as they left Washington national airport for London. Left to right, the trio, Herbert E. Gaston, alternate for secretary of treasury; Honorary Ambassador Henry F. Grady, alternate for secretary of state, and Goldwaite Dorr, alternate for secretary of war, will carry on discussions already underway in London on various questions raised by the British government in connection with the recommendation of the Anglo-American committee for the transfer of 100,000 European Jews to Palestine. Senate Nudges Slim OPA Bill Toward Passage

WASHINGTON, July 12—A powerful group to clinch control exemption for meat, milk and sundry other items gathered steam today as the senate nudged an OPA revival bill toward passage.

Republicans got behind the new campaign after barely failing to rip from the measure provisions which Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said could prevent manufacturers from getting needed price increases.

The GOP objective was to compel the house to vote specifically on the various decontrols already ordered by the senate. Administration leaders were worried over the outcome. They conceded privately that the house might go along and that President Truman again might feel compelled to toss out a veto.

Grand Strategy Plan
This is the strategy, as outlined by Taft to a reporter:
Once the senate passes its measure to bring OPA back to life in slimmer form, the bill will have to go to a conference committee so differences with the house can be straightened out.

So far the house has passed only a bill to continue OPA until July 20 in its pre-death form. However, instructions are being drafted—and the senate will be asked to approve them—telling the senate conferees to stand pat on amendments outlawing any future price controls on:

Meat, poultry, milk, petroleum, cottonseed, soy beans and their products.

Senate insistence almost certainly would compel the house conferees to lay these decontrols before the full chamber for test ballots. Taft said these votes probably would nail down the exemptions.

The senate still had to take care of a few other proposed amendments before getting around to a vote of its own on final passage of the new OPA bill.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) had one in mind to assure that southern pine used for pulpwood would get as high a ceiling price as any other pine used for that purpose.

Compromise Still Open
Senator Reed (R-Kan.) considered a plan to relieve processors who bought grain at higher prices since OPA expired and now face prospects of a return to ceiling prices in effect last June 30.

Senate Majority Leader Barkley (Ky.) told reporters there is a possibility the processors might be caught in a squeeze. But he said there also is a danger that any such relief steps might lead to "freezing and legalizing" all price increases since June 30.

Also, in one final effort to bring OPA back bodily from the grave, Senators Wagner (D-N.Y.), Pepper (Pa.) and a handful of others said they would demand a vote on a complete substitute for the current bill. This substitute would recreate OPA as it existed on June 30.

One of the biggest barriers to a final vote disappeared late last night when the senate refused by a 40-40 tie to delete from the revival bill sections which Taft said would permit OPA to refuse to raise any price ceilings it saw fit.

That action left unscathed a compromise plan, drafted by Barkley, which would allow manufacturers, producers and processors the average prices of their various industries for 1940, plus the average prices of their various industries cost increases in the industries since that time.

One of Four Brought to Salem Hospital Reported To Be Critical

Eight persons, including a Youngstown policeman and two young boys, were injured in a head-on collision of two cars on Route 14, near Unity, at 1 a. m. today, Salem state highway patrolmen said.

Injured are:
Mary E. Wilson, 35, of Youngstown, face lacerations.
Patrolman Alonzo Wilson, 38, of Youngstown, fractured right leg and lacerations of the face.

Howard Boyd, 16, of Youngstown, lacerations of the nose.
Harold Haines, 8, of Youngstown, possible fractured skull.

Leroy Morse of Freedom, Pa., face lacerations and possible fracture of right arm.
William Beltz of Freedom, Pa., serious internal injuries.

Miss Florence Reisinger, of Freedom, Pa., lacerations of face.
Miss Frances Shymaniak of Ambridge, Pa., lacerations of face.

4 In Youngstown Hospital
The Youngstown people, all Negroes, were taken to the Youngstown South Side hospital. The other four were brought to Salem City hospital.

Beltz's condition was reported "serious" today; the others "fair." State patrolmen said occupants of the Pennsylvania car were unconscious when brought to City hospital.

Patrolmen said the two cars, one driven by Mrs. Wilson and the other by Morse, collided as Mrs. Wilson was driving west and Morse east.

Both cars were badly damaged, patrolmen said.
All but Beltz have gained consciousness.

The four at Youngstown City hospital were said to be doing "as well as could be expected."

Hughes, 'Worse,' Tells Of Faulty Propeller That Caused Crash
LOS ANGELES, July 12—His battle for life suddenly weakening, Howard Hughes, 41, beckoned his doctor to his bedside last night and whispered a halting story of the cause of his fiery crash Sunday in an experimental plane.

"I want you to give this message to the army. The accident was caused by the rear half of the right propeller," the millionaire maker of planes and movies told Dr. Verne B. Mason.

"I don't want this to happen to anybody else."

Explaining carefully that the rear set of propeller blades on the right engine of his twin-engine plane had suddenly reversed pitch during the first test hop, Hughes said:

"It felt as if some giant had the right wing of the airplane in his hand and was pushing it back and down."

"Tell the army to look in the wreckage, find the rear half of the right propeller, and find out what went wrong."

Hughes gave his message to Dr. Mason after asking, "Am I going to live?" and hearing the physician solemnly reply:

"I don't know."

Chest Is Crushed
In a bulletin on Hughes' condition, issued when he disclosed the wreckage, the doctor said:

"Howard Hughes has suffered a turn for the worse in his fight for life. His left lung has failed to respond and is still functionless. He is surviving through the restricted use of his right lung, to the extent permitted by his crushed chest, which includes nine broken ribs."

Hughes' XP-11 photo-reconnaissance craft, reportedly the world's fastest long-range plane, struck and set afire three houses and a garage in Beverly Hills before crashing and exploding in a vacant lot.

GEN. VANDENBERG HOLDS KEY POST IN INTELLIGENCE

Brainy Flier, CIG Head, Directs New United States Department

(Last of Four Articles)

BY CLARKE BEACH
WASHINGTON, July 12—If atom bombs should fall by surprise on the United States within the next few years, Lieut. Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg probably would be blamed for it.

The President has given him the top U.S. intelligence job, director of the Central Intelligence group (CIG). It's his responsibility to know whether various intelligence agencies are doing their work and to digest their information for the benefit of policy-making officials.

He doesn't look like the master mind of an international intelligence system, the sinister figure encouraged in novels and movies. He is a pleasant army flier, tall and handsome, cheerfully profane, easy to talk to, decidedly good company.

One can't avoid the impression he is young, despite his 47 years and his iron-gray hair.

"Might as well be comfortable," he said as he settled down on a leather couch in his office, and I accustomed myself to the glare of six rows of many-colored ribbons, replete with stars, rosettes and oak leaf clusters. Some were garnered in the "wild blue yonder" and some awarded for staff and command work in Africa and Europe.

Vandenberg's office, in the new War department building, is small and simple.

An Air Enthusiast
Much of the talk is about aviation, for the general's heart is obviously still in the air. He got in 30 hours of flight time in May, piloting his own B-25. He usually flies in his flying with a business trip. During the war he flew the B-17, the B-26, P-38 and the British Spitfire.

Flying seems to be about his only real recreation these days. For he works usually from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.—and by that time I go home pooped. There's been no time for golf since 1940, although he once had a four handicap.

He and his wife are highly-prized guests of Washington hostesses, and they maintain a rigorous schedule. But the general won't talk about that, except to remark that he and his wife always enjoy dancing or practically any other entertainment.

Headed 9th Air Force
He held various staff posts in Great Britain, Africa, Sicily and Washington. In 1944 he had command of the Ninth Air Force in the European theater. Until he received his present appointment he was G-2 of the War department general staff, reorganizing the army's intelligence.

"Intelligence is one of the most important things in the world," he said. "A nation that operates the way we do, with small army and little emphasis on military affairs in peacetime, must know what to expect from other nations."

Of his program for the CIG he says only: "We have big plans, plenty of ideas, but now we are just in the organizational stage. Give us time and public support, and we'll make this thing work."

OHIO SALES TAX RECEIPTS CLIMB
COLUMBUS, July 12—Things may be hard to buy and expensive, but sales tax is rolling into state coffers at an all-time high—$47,155,801 for the first half of 1946.

The figures indicate, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright said, "a sales tax income to the state of approximately $100,000,000 for the year should buying continue at the pace set during the first six months of 1946."

Last year total collections were $75,780,571.

The 36.8 per cent increase over the first six months of 1945 included increased collections in every county. New automobile and used car sales were 186 per cent above the first half of last year to account for about a tenth of the $12,691,730 gain.

Other classifications showing big increases over the first six months of last year were lumber and materials, 112 per cent; radio and musical equipment, 168 per cent, and furniture, 70 per cent.

Meat Packers' Production Over Capacity

Packinghouses in Kansas City, Kan., are taking bounding strides to increase meat deliveries from an average of five dressed cattle weekly to over 150 beef carcasses. After three-month layoff of workers, Wilson & Co. has reached over-capacity production. Above is sample of meat on hand.

OHIO CORN CROP MAY SET RECORD

COLUMBUS, July 12—The second largest Ohio corn crop on record 178,036,000 bushels—was forecast today by the federal state crop reporting service.

Warm, humid weather in June permitted the corn crop to develop rapidly after adverse weather at planting time, the report said.

The service listed the prospective wheat harvest at 47,760,000 bushels, an increase of more than 13,000,000 over last year, but still 14 percent under the 10-year average.

The oats crop promised 64,070,000 bushels, largest yield since 1928, the service said.

June weather improved fruit prospects, but the anticipated harvest is below the 10-year average.

More Apples This Year
An apple crop of 2,025,000 bushels—twice 1945's yield, but less than half the 10-year average—was promised by the report.

Other fruit crop predictions: Peaches, 455,000 bushels, well below last year; pears, 132,000 bushels, one of the smallest crops; grapes, 16,200 tons, larger than 1945 but under average.

Potatoes this year will yield 6,160,000 bushels, the service said, compared with 7,130,000 from a greater acreage last year.

The forecast for sugar beets was 247,000 tons compared to 208,000 in 1945.

Fortunato Named Coach At Leetonia
Joseph Fortunato of Youngstown, recently discharged from the navy, has been employed to coach football and basketball at Leetonia High school, replacing Charles V. Mather, who resigned recently to accept a position as football coach at Hamilton High school.

The Leetonia board of education made the selection at a meeting Thursday night from a field of 15 candidates, according to Supt. F. R. Naragon.

Fortunato, a graduate of Youngstown Rayen High school and Kent State university, was a star half-back for both schools and was head coach and athletic director at Kent State High school in 1941 before entering the navy as a lieutenant.

He served in the navy until this spring as a physical training officer and as executive officer aboard a navy ship. He is married.

Fortunato will begin his coaching duties at Leetonia with the opening of practices Aug. 20. His contract is effective Aug. 1, Naragon said.

Congressman Given Eviction Notice
LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 12—This district's congressman who has been away supporting OPA now has his eviction papers.

H. M. and Mrs. Ada Walker brought the proceedings against Rep. Emmet O'Neal (D-Ky.). Walker says he desired to occupy the residence, keeping it in readiness of O'Neal's family from Washington.

O'Neal said in Washington he has been renting on a month-to-month basis and was given notice previously but under OPA his time wouldn't have been up until Sept. 12.

RED CROSS PLANS SWIMMING CLASS

Anyone interested in receiving swimming instruction should call Red Cross headquarters, 5219, Saturday morning.

New Quaker Band Will Play In Four Events This Summer

With "big things" ahead, the American Legion Quaker City band is rehearsing strenuously these days.

Members of the 30-piece aggregation wiped away the perspiration time and the membership has gradually increased to 30, although two youthful members quit to return to college.

Drum Major Needed
The band is in the market for a drum major. Bill Fineran, who has been drum major, has re-enlisted in the army, leaving the No. 1 spot vacant.

Chappell said he hopes to increase the band membership further. Applicants can reach him by phoning 4646.

The band is tentatively scheduled to participate in at least five district events.

The American Legion Quaker City band has been invited to take part in the American Legion 10th district convention in Steubenville Sunday, July 21 and the state Legion convention parade in Cleveland Monday, Aug. 19.

A public concert at Centennial park Thursday evening, Aug. 1, is being arranged for the pleasure of Salem music lovers.

The band has been invited to join in a Polo club benefit Aug. 28 and on Sept. 18 the band is planning a benefit concert of its own at Reilly stadium, Chappell announced.

Biitten By Prisoner, Lisbon Marshal Ill
LISBON, July 12—Marshal Dalton E. Pike, Lisbon police officer, is off duty today as a result of an infected right hand p. m.—and by that time I go home pooped. There's been no time for golf since 1940, although he once had a four handicap.

Guy Cornell of Lisbon, arrested by Pike on charges of intoxication, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, buried his teeth in Pike's right thumb Wednesday night as Pike placed him in the village jail.

Mayor G. C. Rauch sentenced Cornell to 60 days in county jail on the three charges.

Pike is being treated with penicillin for an infection which has swollen his right hand to the size of a boxing glove.

Girl's Body Found In Railroad Tunnel

STUEBENVILLE, July 12—Authorities today attempted to identify the body of a young woman found on a railroad track in nearby Gould's tunnel. The body had been run over by a train, but Coroner W. H. Rogers and other officials had not determined whether the girl's death was accidental, murder or suicide. There was no marks on the clothing to afford a clue to identification and baggage lists between New York and St. Louis were being checked. The girl was in her early twenties and wore a white linen dress and a gold necklace about her throat. She had brown eyes and hair. The body was found by track workmen early yesterday about 400 feet from the western entrance of the tunnel.

But the general won't talk about that, except to remark that he and his wife always enjoy dancing or practically any other entertainment.

Headed 9th Air Force

He held various staff posts in Great Britain, Africa, Sicily and Washington. In 1944 he had command of the Ninth Air Force in the European theater. Until he received his present appointment he was G-2 of the War department general staff, reorganizing the army's intelligence. "Intelligence is one of the most important things in the world," he said. "A nation that operates the way we do, with small army and little emphasis on military affairs in peacetime, must know what to expect from other nations." Of his program for the CIG he says only: "We have big plans, plenty of ideas, but now we are just in the organizational stage. Give us time and public support, and we'll make this thing work."

OHIO SALES TAX RECEIPTS CLIMB

COLUMBUS, July 12.—Things may be hard to buy and expensive, but sales tax is rolling into state coffers at an all-time high—$47,155,801 for the first half of 1946. The figures indicate, State Treasurer Don H. Ehrhart said, "a sales tax income to the state of approximately $100,000,000 for the year should buying continue at the pace set during the first six months of 1946." Last year total collections were $75,780,571. The 36.8 per cent increase over the first six months of 1945 included increased collections in every county. New automobile and used car sales were 180 per cent above the first half of last year to account for about a tenth of the $12,691,730 gain. Other classifications showing big increases over the first six months of last year were lumber and materials, 112 per cent; radio and musical equipment, 168 per cent; and furniture, 70 per cent. OHIO CORN CROP MAY SET RECORD

COLUMBUS, July 12.—The second largest Ohio corn crop on record 178,036,000 bushels—was forecast today by the federal state crop reporting service. Warm, humid weather in June permitted the corn crop to develop rapidly after adverse weather at planting time, the report said. The service listed the prospective wheat harvest at 47,700,000 bushels, an increase of more than 13,000,000 over last year, but still 14 per cent under the 10-year average. The oats crop promised 64,070,000 bushels, largest yield since 1928, the service said. June weather improved fruit prospects, but the anticipated harvest is below the 10-year average. More Apples This Year An apple crop of 2,025,000 bushels—twice 1945's yield, but less than half the 10-year average—was promised by the report. Other fruit crop predictions: Peaches, 455,000 bushels, well below last year; pears, 132,000 bushels, one of the smallest crops; grapes, 16,200 tons, larger than 1945 but under average. Potatoes this year will yield 6,160,000 bushels, the service said, compared with 7,130,000 from a greater acreage last year. The forecast for sugar beets was 247,000 tons compared to 208,000 in 1945.

Fortunato Named Coach At Leetonia

Joseph Fortunato of Youngstown, recently discharged from the navy, has been employed to coach football and basketball at Leetonia High school, replacing Charles V. Mather, who resigned recently to accept a position as football coach at Hamilton High school. The Leetonia board of education made the selection at a meeting Thursday night from a field of 15 candidates, according to Supt. F. R. Naragon. Fortunato, a graduate of Youngstown Rayen High school and Kent State university, was a star half-back for both schools and was head coach and athletic director at Kent State High school in 1941 before entering the navy as a lieutenant. He served in the navy until this spring as a physical training officer and as executive officer aboard a navy ship. He is married. Fortunato will begin his coaching duties at Leetonia with the opening of practices Aug. 29. His contract is effective Aug. 1, Naragon said.

New Quaker Band Will Play In Four Events This Summer

With "big things" ahead, the American Legion Quaker City band is rehearsing strenuously these days. Members of the 30-piece aggregation wiped away the perspiration time and the membership has graduated as the musicians held a practice session in Charles H. Carey post home, E. State st. George Chappell, an original member of the Quaker City band and motivating power behind the revived organization, is optimistic about the band's future. When the reorganization call was sounded in the spring—April to be exact—12 bandmen unlimbered their horns and the first rehearsal was underway. Practice sessions have been held each Thursday evening since that time and the membership has gradually increased to 30, although two youthful members quit to return to college. Drum Major Needed The band is in the market for a drum major. Bill Fineran, who has been drum major, has re-enlisted in the army, leaving the No. 1 spot vacant. Chappell said he hopes to increase the band membership further. Applicants can reach him by phoning 4646. The band is tentatively scheduled to participate in at least five district events. The American Legion Quaker City band has been invited to take part in the American Legion 10th district convention in Steubenville Sunday, July 21 and the state Legion convention parade in Cleveland Monday, Aug. 19. A public concert at Centennial park Thursday evening, Aug. 1, is being arranged for the pleasure of Salem music lovers. The band has been invited to join in a Polo club benefit Aug. 28 and on Sept. 18 the band is planning a benefit concert of its own at Reilly stadium, Chappell announced.

Jurors To Consider Road Damage Claims

LISBON, July 12.—Judge Joel H. Sharp today ordered summons issued for the 50 persons whose names were drawn for jury service during the April term of court, but who have not yet been called for duty, with instructions that they report in common pleas court Monday, July 29, at 9 a. m. The jurors will sit in road hearing trials and assess the amount due land owners for damages and land necessary in the relocation of the Lincoln highway in Madison township. Six actions were begun in the court here by the state highway department when property owners refused amounts offered by the state highway department in return for right-of-way easements.

Sheriff Probes Burglary Of Two Homes Thursday

LISBON, July 12.—Sheriff George Hayes is investigating the breaking and entering of two rural homes, both ransacked by the thieves sometime Thursday afternoon. He said the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Elkins, near the Buckeye club on the old East Liverpool-Lisbon road, and Howard McPherson, two miles south of Lisbon on the same road, were entered. The intruders netted about $30 in cash, three valuable guns and a typewriter in the two thefts, Hayes said. Woman Drowns In River WARREN, July 12.—Mrs. Donna L. ASK TIME TO STUDY SAAR BASIN ISSUE

Byrnes Then Proposes Ministers Turn To Austrian Question

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, July 12.—Russia blocked steps for an immediate economic unification of Germany at the foreign ministers council today by asking for time to study the future of the industrial Saar basin, an American source said. Secretary of State Byrnes proposed that the Berlin control council of the United States, Russia, France and the United Kingdom be instructed immediately to set up the machinery for such a merger. The proposal was tabled, perhaps for further discussion at the afternoon session. The American informant said Byrnes made his new proposal after President-Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France said in a conciliatory statement that the Saar should be excluded from such a unification and be incorporated fully in the French economy. The Saar with its rich coal deposits complements economically the iron deposits of adjoining French Alsace-Lorraine. Turn To Study Of Austria A British informant said the morning meeting was "completely inconclusive." After Byrnes' new plan was tabled, the American suggested that the session discuss Austria. A French source said the ministers did agree to name a special committee to study the problem of how much German coal production to leave to the Germans and how much to allot to the Allies. The committee will report to the Berlin control council, which will pass on the report to the ministers by Sept. 1. Bidault told the meeting, associates said that France would consent to "the provisional treatment of Germany in her actual frontiers, as an economic unit," on the condition that administrative machinery set up to accomplish this be headed by Allied personnel and not German. A new American plan designed to restore economic order in Germany was presented to the ministers last night. U. S. Has Second Plan The American proposal, presented yesterday by Secretary Byrnes, called for the establishment of a central administration in Germany, superseding what Byrnes described as the present "air tight compartments" of the four occupation zones. Byrnes said that if the American proposal were turned down, his government was willing as a last resort to make an economic merger of its occupation zone with that of any member or members of the Big Four. Meanwhile, the ministers formally scheduled another meeting—probably in November—to continue the study of Germany. Byrnes' proposal was made 24 hours after Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had called for a unified and self-sufficient Germany, with a government which ultimately would be able to sign a peace treaty with the Allies. Like Molotov, Byrnes said that he favored a revival of Germany's peaceful industries.

Racing The Clock

Senator Barkley, saying what he is supposed to say as Democratic floor leader, roars that the great majority of Americans want OPA. We don't know where he gets his statistics, but here are a few of our own.

On the day Harry Truman scuttled OPA, thereby outwitting himself and friends, 501 percent of the American people believed 501 percent of the guff Chester Bowles and friends had been telling them about OPA being the last stand of civilization.

These percentages are shrinking hourly as Americans learn that life without OPA is only 39.4 percent as bad as Chet and his friends and Harry and his friends said it would be. The whole issue has turned out to be a race between the disintegration of an illusion and the clock. If OPA continues to be suspended for two more weeks, it will be as dead as NRA.

Sidney Hillmans Death

Sidney Hillman's death at this particular time and in the light of current circumstances is an event of extreme public importance.

Mr. Hillman's sharpness of intellect and vigor of purpose had made him powerful in labor unionism and politics. He planned to make a critical test of his power this year.

His political organization—the CIO-PAC—had announced its intention of voting out of office in 1946 all congressmen who had incurred its disapproval. It was proceeding with ambitious plans to purge the country of congressional opposition to the program of the extreme left, for which it was the principal spokesman and instrument.

CIO-PAC was Sidney Hillman just as truly as the New Deal was Franklin D. Roosevelt and Mr. Hillman's death will leave his followers in as sorry a pickle as Mr. Roosevelt's death left his followers.

CIO-PAC has been and will continue to be the overt means of channeling the political activity of the organized labor minority into the radical wing of our national politics. Under Mr. Roosevelt, with his devotion to the practice of class division, Mr. Hillman flourished. Under Harry Truman, whom he cleared as Mr. Roosevelt's successor, Mr. Hillman has continued to have great influence in high politics, but events have been turning against him.

His organization has not fared well in this year's primaries. Mr. Hillman's class claims were not backed up by ballots. Without Mr. Roosevelt's personal popularity to nurse along the illusion that labor leaders can control their followers' votes, the throaty threats of the CIO-PAC are beginning to sound phony.

Despite the fact Mr. Hillman remained in the background pretty much after he made himself a leading campaign issue in the 1944 election, the things he stood for have been coming ever more prominently into the foreground. People are beginning to wonder whether and why. Skeptics are beginning to suggest that by election time next November an endorsement by CIO-PAC may be a kiss of death on a candidate's uneasy brow.

In short with Mr. Roosevelt gone and Mr. Truman fumbling with the disintegrating parts of the New Deal coalition, the CIO-PAC was just one more isolated political factor to be picked off by anyone who could draw a bead on it. Either it had to demonstrate it was top dog, as it claimed, or the other dogs were going to eat it up, subject to the grim law of survival in politics.

Mr. Hillman's death robs the organization of its dominant personality at a critical time. It would be foolish to try to guess what may become now of the movement he started, but it is obvious his hopes have not been served well by recent events, including his own death in the year when he planned CIO-PAC's bid for transcendent political power.

Any Opinions To The Contrary?

William Green's advice to members of the American Federation of labor to help management increase efficiency to increase their own purchasing power is a bright spot in trade union statements.

Management's postwar production problems have been complicated by labor's failure to return to its prewar efficiency. The general rise in wage rates has been accompanied by a general decline in production rates. Production costs and prices have been forced unnaturally high.

Mr. Green, as president of A.F.L., is one of the few labor officials to say publicly what all labor officials know privately—that labor's money gains are being wiped out by this unhealthy condition. Higher production costs cause higher prices for the things labor itself must buy. Labor's efficiency is the key to the high standard of living which American working people claim as one of their inalienable economic rights.

Anything that interferes with efficiency undermines the living standards of working men and women. It has no particular effect on the standard of living of the small minority of the wealthy; their standard is likely to be relatively higher in economically backward countries. The secret coveted by every nation trying to develop an industrial economy is how the United States abolished a proletariat.

Few labor leaders since Samuel Gompers have been courageous enough to admit that partnership between management and labor is the answer. Most of them continue to agitate class warfare, more interested in grinding political axes than in getting a better economic break for labor.

We Can Spare The Room

Something that has been bothering innocent bystanders is bothering the rocket experts too. They are running out of shooting space. Unless they're careful, they'll kill someone—and with no war going on that would lead to complications.

The army ordnance department has announced with a straight face and a correct military bearing that a search is being made for a 2,000-mile testing ground, which may have to be replaced before long with a private planet, to keep innocent bystanders from getting hurt. Here is a proposal that can be endorsed even by the vetoing Russians.

We nominate for occupancy on the private planet all hobbyists in the art of mass murder. We propose that all of them be dispatched there promptly via rockets, with freight rockets taking them the materials they need to make bigger and better explosions. We further propose that this be made a project of the United Nations, which is supposed to be in charge of peace.

When all the experts in atomic explosions, death rockets that come slithering out of space at a thousand miles an hour, poison gases and rays and the standard paraphernalia of modern war have been segregated on another planet, we can settle down for a thousand years of peace. Politicians will continue to call each other dirty names but these fellows can't fight a lick. However, if they wanted to try, Mike Jacobs, the ringside-seat tycoon, could sell ringside seats at $500 apiece from here to the Straits of Magellan and it still would be cheaper than what happens to innocent bystanders in modern war.

The Stars Say
For Saturday, July 13

WITH precision, well-organized strategies and wisely executed plans and projects it is possible that certain tricky and misleading conditions may be side-stepped. This hidden situation, holding deep menace where there is carelessness or slipshod ideas or techniques, may crop out in least suspected places.

However, the energies and faculties are stimulated to capable, aggressive and well co-ordinated tactics, and firm initiative might defeat all subtleties.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may enjoy a lively, progressive and productive year by aggressive, practical and determined attack on false, seductive or intriguing snares and lures which may be subtly organized by little suspected personalities or groups.

The force of keen techniques, with bold and constructive plans and objectives, might result in thrilling and dynamic denouements in which there may be enthusiastic public approbation. Press for high objectives by quick moves and sound skill.

A child born on this day will have practical skills and ingenuity but may be easily victimized by intriguing schemes and schemers, but winning out by astute executive ability.

Racing The Clock

Senator Barkley, saying what he is supposed to say as Democratic floor leader, roars that the great majority of Americans want OPA. We don't know where he gets his statistics, but here are a few of our own.

On the day Harry Truman scuttled OPA, thereby outwitting himself and friends, 50.1 percent of the American people believed 50.1 percent of the guff Chester Bowles and friends had been telling them about OPA being the last stand of civilization.

These percentages are shrinking hourly as Americans learn that life without OPA is only 39.4 percent as bad as Chet and his friends and Harry and his friends said it would be. The whole issue has turned out to be a race between the disintegration of an illusion and the clock. If OPA continues to be suspended for two more weeks, it will be as dead as NRA.

Sidney Hillmans Death

Sidney Hillman's death at this particular time and in the light of current circumstances is an event of extreme public importance.

Mr. Hillman's sharpness of intellect and vigor of purpose had made him powerful in labor unionism and politics. He planned to make a critical test of his power this year.

His political organization—the C.I.O.-P.A.C.—had announced its intention of voting out of office in 1946 all congressmen who had incurred its disapproval. It was proceeding with ambitious plans to purge the country of congressional opposition to the program of the extreme left, for which it was the principal spokesman and instrument.

C.I.O.-P.A.C. was Sidney Hillman just as truly as the New Deal was Franklin D. Roosevelt and Mr. Hillman's death will leave his followers in as sorry a pickle as Mr. Roosevelt's death left his followers.

C.I.O.-P.A.C. has been and will continue to be the overt means of channeling the political activity of the organized labor minority into the radical wing of our national politics. Under Mr. Roosevelt, with his devotion to the practice of class division, Mr. Hillman flourished. Under Harry Truman, whom he cleared as Mr. Roosevelt's successor, Mr. Hillman has continued to have great influence in high politics, but events have been turning against him.

His organization has not fared well in this year's primaries. Mr. Hillman's class claims were not backed up by ballots. Without Mr. Roosevelt's personal popularity to nurse along the illusion that labor leaders can control their followers' votes, the throaty threats of the C.I.O.-P.A.C. are beginning to sound phony.

Despite the fact Mr. Hillman remained in the background pretty much after he made himself a leading campaign issue in the 1944 election, the things he stood for have been coming ever more prominently into the foreground. People are beginning to wonder whether and why. Skeptics are beginning to suggest that by election time next November an endorsement by C.I.O.-P.A.C. may be a kiss of death on a candidate's uneasy brow.

In short with Mr. Roosevelt gone and Mr. Truman fumbling with the disintegrating parts of the New Deal coalition, the C.I.O.-P.A.C. was just one more isolated political factor to be picked off by anyone who could draw a bead on it. Either it had to demonstrate it was top dog, as it claimed, or the other dogs were going to eat it up, subject to the grim law of survival in politics.

Mr. Hillman's death robs the organization of its dominant personality at a critical time. It would be foolish to try to guess what may become now of the movement he started, but it is obvious his hopes have not been served well by recent events, including his own death in the year when he planned C.I.O.-P.A.C.'s bid for transcendent political power.

Any Opinions To The Contrary?

William Green's advice to members of the American Federation of labor to help management increase efficiency to increase their own purchasing power is a bright spot in trade union statements.

Management's postwar production problems have been complicated by labor's failure to return to its prewar efficiency. The general rise in wage rates has been accompanied by a general decline in production rates. Production costs and prices have been forced unnaturally high.

Mr. Green, as president of A.F.L., is one of the few labor officials to say publicly what all labor officials know privately—that labor's money gains are being wiped out by this unhealthy condition. Higher production costs cause higher prices for the things labor itself must buy. Labor's efficiency is the key to the high standard of living which American working people claim as one of their inalienable economic rights.

Anything that interferes with efficiency undermines the living standards of working men and women. It has no particular effect on the standard of living of the small minority of the wealthy; their standard is likely to be relatively higher in economically backward countries. The secret coveted by every nation trying to develop an industrial economy is how the United States abolished a proletariat.

Few labor leaders since Samuel Gompers have been courageous enough to admit that partnership between management and labor is the answer. Most of them continue to agitate class warfare, more interested in grinding political axes than in getting a better economic break for labor.

We Can Spare The Room

Something that has been bothering innocent bystanders is bothering the rocket experts too. They are running out of shooting space. Unless they're careful, they'll kill someone—and with no war going on that would lead to complications.

The army ordnance department has announced with a straight face and a correct military bearing that a search is being made for a 2,000-mile testing ground, which may have to be replaced before long with a private planet, to keep innocent bystanders from getting hurt. Here is a proposal that can be endorsed even by the vetoing Russians.

We nominate for occupancy on the private planet all hobbyists in the art of mass murder. We propose that all of them be dispatched there promptly via rockets, with freight rockets taking them the materials they need to make bigger and better explosions. We further propose that this be made a project of the United Nations, which is supposed to be in charge of peace.

When all the experts in atomic explosions, death rockets that come slithering out of space at a thousand miles an hour, poison gases and rays and the standard paraphernalia of modern war have been segregated on another planet, we can settle down for a thousand years of peace. Politicians will continue to call each other dirty names but these fellows can't fight a lick. However, if they wanted to try, Mike Jacobs, the ringside-seat tycoon, could sell ringside seats at $500 apiece from here to the Straits of Magellan and it still would be cheaper than what happens to innocent bystanders in modern war.

The Stars Say

For Saturday, July 13

WITH precision, well-organized strategies and wisely executed plans and projects it is possible that certain tricky and misleading conditions may be side-stepped. This hidden situation, holding deep menace where there is carelessness or slipshod ideas or techniques, may crop out in least suspected places.

However, the energies and faculties are stimulated to capable, aggressive and well co-ordinated tactics, and firm initiative might defeat all subtleties.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may enjoy a lively, progressive and productive year by aggressive, practical and determined attack on false, seductive or intriguing snares and lures which may be subtly organized by little suspected personalities or groups.

The force of keen techniques, with bold and constructive plans and objectives, might result in thrilling and dynamic denouements in which there may be enthusiastic public approbation. Press for high objectives by quick moves and sound skill.

A child born on this day will have practical skills and ingenuity but may be easily victimized by intriguing schemes and schemers, but winning out by astute executive ability.

Curb On Federal Spending Urged

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 12—Reconstruction Director John R. Steelman today demanded new slashes in federal spending and pointed at the Army and Navy as the places to cut deepest.

Economy may be achieved there, Steelman told President Truman and congress, without hampering operations aimed at fulfilling world obligations, furthering American interests and keeping global peace.

While terming the revival of price control the No. 1 essential in warding off "costly and irretrievable" inflation, the reconversion director said this action should be coupled with lower government expenditures, continued high taxes and price controls, and, if possible, a budget surplus.

Less spending by the civilian agencies and postponement of public works would help to halt the flow of government dollars into private hands, Steelman said in his quarterly report as director of the office of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

Steelman led off his report with an announcement that "production of over-the-counter consumer goods for the first half of 1946 was the highest in either peace or war."

And until June 30 — when OPA expired — "runaway inflation had been prevented," Steelman said.

"But today, we are threatened with the loss of the controls which we have used to maintain stabilization and to protect production," the report continued.

Premature Atom Bomb Blast Unlikely

By ELTON C. FAY

ABOARD USS MT. MCKINLEY, July 12—The chance that the second atomic test bomb will explode prematurely is only "one in a million," Capt. Christian Engleman, Navy electronics expert, told a press conference today.

Engleman, Col. Thomas J. Betts, security chief, and other electronics authorities attached to the atomic task force detailed for the press the elaborate precautions which will be taken to insure against premature explosion.

Safeguards against the contingency include both electronic and manual devices, Betts explained. The last man to leave the lagoon will throw a switch which will permit the bomb mechanism to receive radio impulses which will bring the explosion.

• SO THEY SAY

There is nothing more dewey-eyed, naive and ignorant of the realities of human nature than to urge seriously and sincerely that the world rest its hopes for eliminating the atomic bomb entirely upon making possession and use of the bomb illegal—outlawing.

Delicious cooling beverage—iced tea with grape juice.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Canned or bottled fruit juices take the heat out of summer days. Keep them chilled in your refrigerator, ready to serve plain or combined. The addition of fresh berries, mint, lemon juice, or even sherbets or ice cream gives extra interest and flavor—and more heat-combatting vitamins. The combination of 2 parts tomato juice and 1 part unsweetened grapefruit juice makes a refreshing, healthful cooler.

Concord Party Punch
(Makes 24 small glasses)
One quart grape juice, 1 1/3 cup

lemon juice, 1 pint orange juice, 2 3/4 cup white corn syrup, block of ice, 4 (12-ounce) bottles ginger ale.

Combine grape juice with other fruit juices and corn syrup, blending well. Pour over block of ice in large punch bowl. Just before serving add ginger ale, stirring to mix.

Golden Soda

For each soda, combine 2 3/4 cup chilled blended orange and grapefruit juice with 1 3/4 cup chilled ginger ale in a tall glass. Add a large scoop of vanilla ice cream and 2 straws, and you have a treat in any weather.

Warm Weather Tea
(Serves 6)

Three cups boiling water, 2 teaspoons tea leaves, juice of 2 lemons, 1 pint grape juice, 4 teaspoons sugar. Pour boiling water over tea leaves; cover closely and allow to stand 5 minutes. Strain. Add sugar, lemon juice, and grape juice. Chill thoroughly. Pour into tall glasses over ice.

Delicious cooling beverage—iced tea with grape juice.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Canned or bottled fruit juices take the heat out of summer days. Keep them chilled in your refrigerator, ready to serve plain or combined. The addition of fresh berries, mint, lemon juice, or even sherbets or ice cream gives extra interest and flavor—and more heat-combating vitamins. The combination of 2 parts tomato juice and 1 part unsweetened grapefruit juice makes a refreshing, healthful cooler.

Concord Party Punch

(Makes 21 small glasses)

One quart grape juice, 1/3 cup

lemon juice, 1 pint oranges juice, 2/3 cup white corn syrup, block of ice, 4 (12-ounce) bottles ginger ale.

Combine grape juice with other fruit juices and corn syrup, blending well. Pour over block of ice in large punch bowl. Just before serving add ginger ale, stirring to mix.

Golden Soda

For each soda, combine 2/3 cup chilled blended orange and grapefruit juice with 1/3 cup chilled ginger ale in a tall glass. Add a large scoop of vanilla ice cream and 2 straws, and you have a treat in any weather.

Warm Weather Tea

(Serves 6)

Three cups boiling water, 2 teaspoons tea leaves, juice of 2 lemons, 1 pint grape juice, 4 teaspoons sugar.

Pour boiling water over tea

STADIUM LIGHTS AT COLUMBIANA READY SEPT. 1

COLUMBIANA, July 12 — Flood lighting of the football stadium in Firestone park is to be ready by Sept. 1, A. M. Poulton reported at the July meeting of the Columbianna Boosters club at the park Wednesday evening.

Poulton, who is also a member of the park board, said the contract with the Mook Electric Co. of Youngstown called for completion of the installation by that date. The park board will rush work on the foundations.

The Boosters will investigate a public address system for sports events.

Monday, Aug. 12, is the date set for the entertainment of 150 children, including the band, from Fairmount Children's home.

President G. Charles Fisher appointed H. J. Harold and Charles Ramsey to have charge of the Boosters part in the entertainment.

William Allen was appointed to head a Boosters committee to help get the football field in condition for fall games.

The club plans to have a swimming party soon. It will be for members only some night after the pool is closed to the public at 10 p. m.

Several of the teams in the membership drive are not yet ready to report. It is expected that the membership will be doubled to about 300.

Home From Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Vaughn and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leonard and families have returned from a vacation in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Vaughn of Winter Haven, Fla., occupied the home of their son, Willard, during the absence of the family.

Church Outing Held

The Columbianna-New Waterford Lutheran parish held its annual picnic at Pavilion 4, Firestone park, Wednesday evening with 150 in attendance.

Mrs. Mary Griffin, Mrs. W. E. Scott and Misses Marjorie Bilger and Gloria Martin, of First Methodist church, have been attending this week at Baldwin-Wallace college, Berea, a school of instruction for workers among Methodist youth.

With District Men In the Service

James P. Cope, ship's cook, third class, of Salem, was discharged from the Navy at the Great Lakes separation center July 9.

High Fliers Warned Not To Grit Teeth

NEW YORK — If and when you take a high altitude airplane ride, remember not to grit your teeth.

That's the advice of a symposium of AAF dental officers whose conclusions are reported in the Journal of the American Dental Association.

They found that nervous and muscle tension during flight was often associated with excessive biting or grinding of the teeth, and this extra force was likely to dislodge tooth fillings.

Gritting the teeth at ground level isn't apt to have such results because ordinarily you get a pain before any harm can be done. Preoccupation with other things during flight makes a person overlook the pain and do a lot more severe grinding.

Household Hints

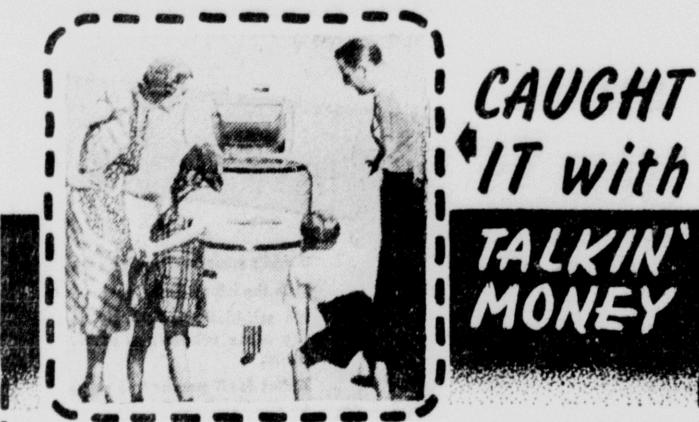

To prevent radiators from rusting go over them with an oiled cloth.

To remove the metal base of an electric light bulb that has broken in the socket, push a cork into the base and turn it.

Insert short sections of drinking straws in pie-crust slits. The juices will rise in 'em during cooking instead of oozing out all over the oven. Remove before serving.

Need Of Warship Redesign Shown by Atomic Bomb Test

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 12—A board of experts advised President Truman today that the Bikini atomic bomb test provided adequate data for the redesign of Navy vessels to minimize damage to superstructures and deck personnel from this type of bomb.

A vast amount of data which can prove invaluable throughout the redesign of Navy vessels has been made available by this report, the board added.

The evaluation board, representing the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was headed by Dr. Karl T. Compton, physicist.

President Truman made public the board's report at his news conference.

The board said that only by further large-scale research and development "can the United States retain its present position of scientific leadership." This must be continued, it added, "in the interests of national safety."

Widespread Damage
The board emphasized that bomb damaged more ships "than have ever before been damaged by a single explosion."

Because of the nature of the test—the bomb was exploded in the air—little information has been obtained as to what an atomic bomb can do to a ship's hull, the board said, adding:

"Damage to ships' hulls will be studied specifically in the second test when a bomb will be exploded under water."

It reported that the bomb exploded "with an intensity which approached the best of the three previous atomic bombs," over a point 1,500 to 2,000 feet westerly of the target at approximately the planned altitude.

It continued that the target area in no sense represented an actual naval disposition but was designed to obtain maximum data from a single explosion.

The board said little damage apparently was done to the hulls of the Battleship Nevada and Arkansas and the heavy Cruiser Pensacola, the only major combatant ships within one-half mile of the explosion point, but "their superstructures were badly wrecked."

High Casualties Seen
"Examination of the flashburn effects produced by the initial radiation from the explosion indicates that casualties would have been high among exposed personnel," the report continued.

"However, it is the opinion of the board that persons sheltered within the hull of a ship or even on deck in the shadow of radiation from the bomb would not have been immediately incapacitated by burns alone, whatever might have been the subsequent radiological effects."

"Within the area of extensive blast damage to ship superstructures there is evidence that personnel within the ships would have been exposed to a lethal dosage of radiological effect."

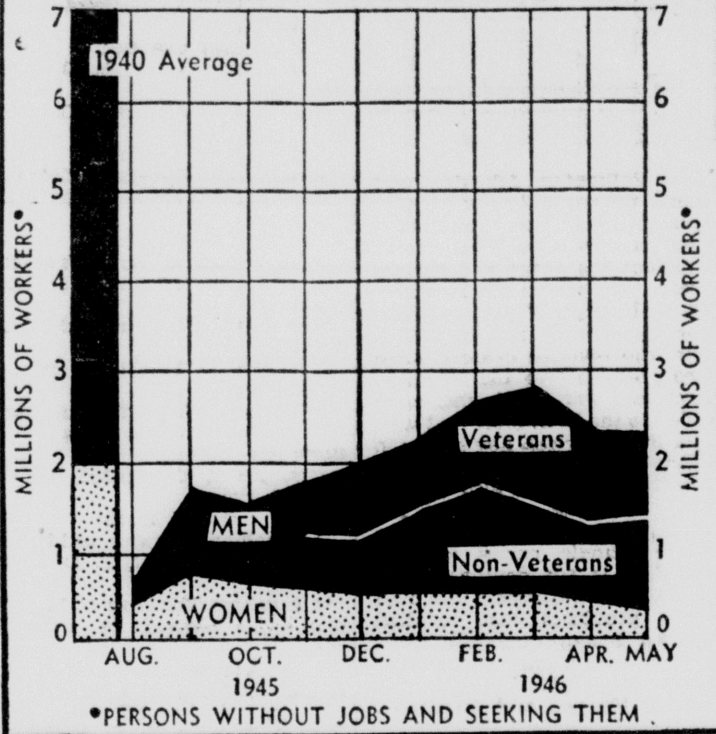

"Personnel casualties due to blast would no doubt have been high for those in exposed positions, on vessels within one half mile of the target center. Beyond this, any discussion of the blast effect upon personnel will have to await the detailed reports of the medical specialists."

In addition to Compton, the members of the experts board were: Barclay Dewey, Thomas F. Farrell, Gen. Joseph W. Stillwell, Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, Rear Adm. W. R. Purnell and Rear Adm. R. A. Ofsite.

The ancients believed man's strength was located in his hair.

UNEMPLOYMENT BEFORE WAR AND AFTER

Number seeking work after VJ-Day never reached three million, now is running less than a third of 1940 average.

Need Of Warship Redesign Shown by Atomic Bomb Test

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 12—A board of experts advised President Truman today that the Bikini atomic bomb test provided adequate data for the redesign of Navy vessels to minimize damage to superstructures and deck personnel from this type of bomb.

A vast amount of data which will prove invaluable throughout the redesign of Navy vessels, the board said, was obtained from the atomic bomb test. This must be taken into account in the redesign of Navy vessels.

The evaluation board, representing the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was headed by Dr. Karl T. Compton, noted physicist.

President Truman made public the board's report at his news conference.

The board said that only by further large-scale research and development can the United States retain its present position of scientific leadership. This must be continued, it added, "in the interests of national safety."

Widespread Damage

The board emphasized that bomb damage to ships "can be expected to be widespread by a single explosion."

It is because of the nature of the test—the bomb was exploded in the air—little information has been obtained as to what an atomic bomb can do to a ship's hull, the board said, adding:

"Damage to ships' hulls will be expected specifically in the second stage when a bomb will be exploded under water."

It reported that the bomb exploded with an intensity which approached the best of the three previous atomic bombs, "over a target 1,500 to 2,000 feet westerly of the planned target."

It continued that the target area in no sense represented an actual naval disposition but was designed to obtain maximum data from a single explosion.

The board said little damage apparently was done to the hulls of the Battleship Nevada and Arkansas and the heavy Cruiser Pensacola, the only major combatant ships within one-half mile of the explosion point, but "their superstructures were badly wrecked."

High Casualties Seen

"Examination of the flashburn effects produced by the initial radiation from the explosion indicates that casualties would have been high among exposed personnel," the report continued.

"However, it is the opinion of the board that persons sheltered within the hull of a ship or even on deck in the shadow of radiation from the bomb would not have been immediately incapacitated by burns alone, whatever might have been the subsequent radiological effects."

"Within the area of extensive blast damage to ship superstructures there is evidence that personnel within the ships would have been exposed to a lethal dosage of radiological effect."

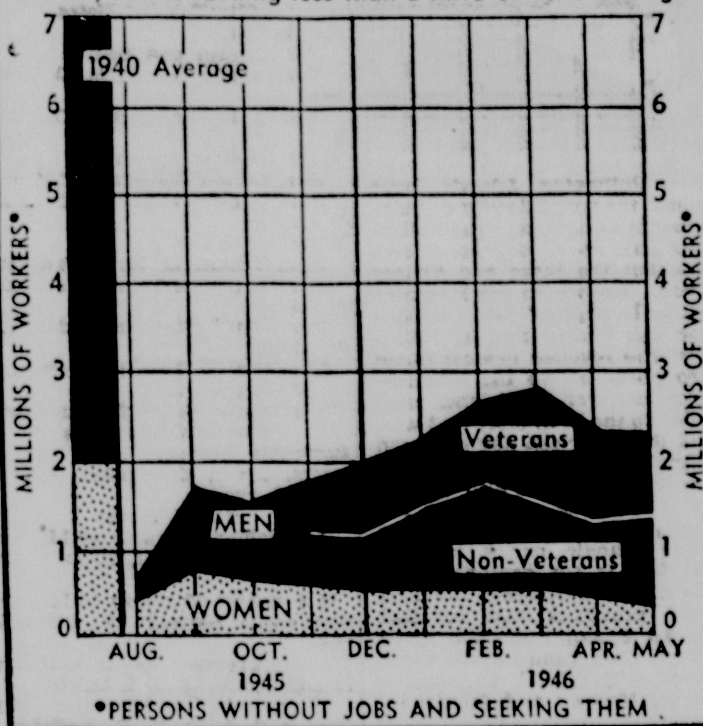

"Personnel casualties due to blast would no doubt have been high for those in exposed positions, on vessels within one half mile of the target center. Beyond this, any discussion of the blast effect upon personnel will have to await the detailed reports of the medical specialists."

In addition to Compton, the members of the experts board were: Barclay Dewey, Thomas F. Farrell, Gen. Joseph W. Stillwell, Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, Rear Adm. W. R. Purnell and Rear Adm. R. A. Ostlie.

The ancients believed man's strength was located in his hair.

Some Ohio Cities Making Effort To Keep Rents Down

(By Associated Press)

While the U. S. senate haggles clause by clause over proposed extension of the Office of Price Administration and the state government awaits the outcome, some Ohio cities are waging their own fights to keep rents from skyrocketing.

Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo and Zanesville are among the Ohio cities which have tackled the problem or plan to in the next few days. But in no instances were there reported any imposition of penalties for rent boosts.

Except for appeals for voluntary action to hold down prices, local governments have made no effort to maintain price ceilings on anything except rents.

No Critical Urgency

And because most rents were paid July 1 and many urban area judges are delaying eviction cases for 30 days, the rent hike problem has not yet built up to its most critical urgency.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche has asked the attorney general to prepare rent control legislation for possible submission to another special session of the legislature, but will wait until July 19 for congressional action before conferring with legislative leaders.

Zanesville's council Monday night passed a resolution asking landlords not to raise rents and recommending that assessors boost valuation of properties where rents were raised. The resolution, backed by the CIO-PAC, asks all persons whose rents have been raised since OPA's demise to report to the county auditor.

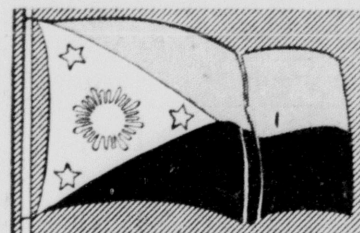

Cincinnati's rent ordinance of last week provides a fine of up to $500 and sentence up to six months or both for violation of an emergency provision freezing rents on residential properties as of June 30.

Committees At Work
Toledo's city council Thursday decided to discuss establishment of a fair rents committee Monday; and Dayton's city attorney is drafting a rent control ordinance similar to Cincinnati's.

Cleveland has a fair rent committee with no legal authority to do anything but receive complaints and make suggestions.

John E. McCree, new president of the state board of real estate examiners, appealed Thursday to real estate brokers, property owners and managers throughout the state to maintain "just and reasonable" rental rates on all property.

On Its Own, Now

The Philippine Islands have joined the world family of independent nations, and the Philippine flag, above, will henceforth supplant the Stars and Stripes there. Known as the Kapitunan, or Insurgents' flag, the banner was first carried by Filipinos who revolted against Spain two years before the Spanish-American war. The islands were ceded to the U. S. after that war, and the American flag has been official ever since, although the Kapitunan flag has also been in use since 1920. The blue bar (top), symbolizes hope, the white triangle, purity, and the red bar is for courage. The golden sun represents the first eight provinces that revolted against Spain, while the three golden stars stand for the three main geographical divisions—Luzon, Visayan and Mindanao.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Newest of the Wonder Drugs

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

BECAUSE painful feet produce so much discomfort and disability, it may be said that from the point of view of the patient there are no minor disorders of these extremities.

So far as the doctor is concerned, however, there are many which are considered minor. This is not due to heartlessness on the part of the medical profession but merely because such conditions are easily corrected by simple surgical operations.

Ingrown Toenails

One of these conditions is ingrown toenail. The most common cause of the development of ingrown toenails are cutting the child's toenails too short, and the wearing of shoes and stockings which fit too tightly.

It is not unusual for the skin around an ingrown toenail to become infected. According to Drs. Alec Singer and Archie M. A. Moore of England, when such infection is present it may be cleared up by carefully trimming off the infected nail and using a dressing of a sulfonamide ointment.

A bit of cotton dipped in the ointment may be packed in and around the infected area. Drs. Singer and Moore point out that the services of an experienced chiropodist are extremely valuable, in such cases.

In some cases, in order to clear up the condition, it may be necessary partially to remove the affected nail, along with any excessive scar tissue which may have formed. This is carried out by a physician since it is necessary usually to put the patient to sleep with an anesthetic. If there is no infection of an ingrown nail, a more extensive operation can be performed to get rid completely of the ingrown nail.

Tissue Growth

Another condition which may develop is the growth of hard tissue beneath the nail. The pressure of the shoe then produces pain. This disorder seems to develop also because of pressure of the shoes on the feet. In many instances, infection also occurs in this disorder, and here, too, the infection must be cleared up before an operation can be performed to get rid of the growth.

A bony outgrowth may occur on the heel. This is known as a spur. Sometimes such spurs are painful. The pain is brought on by the pressure of walking or in some cases because the spur is broken. The patient complains of a painful tender area on the heel. Sometimes these spurs can be treated without operation.

It is suggested that a pit be made in the heel of the shoe on the inside and a rubber pad be put into this pit. The patient will then be walking on a soft rubber cushion and this may relieve the symptoms. Another method of treatment is to inject a solution of a local anesthetic or pain-deadening preparation around the area and then allow the patient to wear the shoe with the rubber pad.

If these methods fail to relieve the condition, it is suggested that operation be performed and the spur chiselled away.

For such disorders as corns and calluses the services of a chiropodist are useful. In the serious foot disorders, a physician should be consulted concerning the best form of treatment.

Letters to Dr. Bundesen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

Name Players For Softball's First All-Star Game On July 31

AMERICAN LEAGUE

PITCHERS: John Zinec, Mullins; Jack King, Ohio Grill; John McClure, Jaycees; and Ralph Clunen, Leetonia.

CATCHERS: Mike Guappone, Mullins, and Bob Holland, Leetonia.

FIRST BASEMEN: Fred Schmid, Sinclair, and Pete Bennett, Mullins.

SECOND BASEMEN: Don Freed, Sinclair, and Sam Stumpo, Leetonia.

THIRD BASEMEN: Pat Mancuso, Leetonia, and Bob Miller, Sinclair.

SHORTSTOPS: Steve Zatkos, Mullins, and Bob Cameron, Ohio Grill.

OUTFIELDERS: Guy Beltempo, Leetonia; Vince Dominetti, Mullins; Dick Ellis, Sip N Bite; John Volo, Ohio Grill; "Pinky" King, Ohio Grill; Harold Close, Electric Furnace; John Pukalski, Mullins; and Eddie Bosick, Sinclair.

MANAGER: Ralph Mancuso, Leetonia.

COACHES: Mike Schuller, Mullins, and Harry Coy, Electric Furnace.

Managers of teams representing both American and National leagues in Salem's Class A softball setup met Thursday night at the Memorial building and chose the All-star teams found on this page. In addition, the pilots drafted plans for the first Salem inter-league All-Star game, to be played at Reilly field on the night of July 31.

The tilt will be a nine-inning affair, preceded by a seven-inning preliminary game between undefeated Goodrich of Class B and an All-Star lineup chosen from the balance of the junior circuit.

Price for the game will be fifty cents for adults and a dime for children. The entire proceeds of the game will go to form a medical fund to aid players injured in city softball play.

The managers, in addition to selecting the players, also chose three umpires to work the game. The three, Jim Jackson, Ray Reasbeck and Pat Boien, will each work three innings behind the plate and six on the bases.

The final choices for the two teams gave the present league leaders and runners up the bulk of the positions. In the American loop, Mullins placed six men on the 22 man lineup. Leetonia checked in with five places, Sinclair four, Ohio Grill four, Jaycees one, Sip N Bite one and Electric Furnace one. The Eagles and VFW failed to place any men on the squad.

League leading Demings and the Salem China each have five men on the National league team. The Bowling Center has four, Saxons two, Recreation two, I. A. C. two, and Salem Lunch one. Firestone and Washingtonville were left out, placing no one on the team.

The managers and coaches for the two teams are as follows: American league—Ralph Mancuso, Leetonia, manager; Mike Schuller, Mullins, and Harry Coy, Electric Furnace, coaches. National league—Al Sanders, China, manager; Earl "Wink" Miller, Firestone, and Al Linder, Saxons, coaches.

Each pitcher in the "dream tilt" will be permitted to pitch but three innings, thus assuring at least six of the All-Star twirlers a chance to show their wares. It was decided, also, that the men on the other positions could play but four and one-half innings, at the discretion of their managers.

Plans for ticket sales will be announced at a later date.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PITCHERS: Kenny Brudery, Demings; Dale Ritchie, China; Wayne Hahn, Bowling Center; and Bill Bennett, Salem Lunch.

SECOND BASE: Lowdy Kerr, Demings; and Ray McGaffick, China.

Bowling Center Wins, Moves Into Tie With Salem China; American Loop 2nd Goes To Grill On Win Over Leetonia

Lunch, Firestone Locked In Bottom Positions; IAC Wins Over Tire Team

Determinedly hanging on to a place near the top of the National league, the progressing Bowling Center Thursday defeated the Salem Lunch 7-1 at Centennial park to move from third place into a virtual tie with the Salem China for second.

In the other loop fray the Italian American club boosted its won and lost record with a pretty 7-0 shut-out of Firestone.

The Bowling Center-Lunch contest was halted in the top of the seventh because of rain, consequently cancelling three Center runs scored when Wayne Hahn slapped out what would have been his fifth homer of the season. Times at bat and hits scored in that frame do not count in league records.

The Center now stands a few percentage points below the China, but is actually just two games behind Demings in a virtual tie with the Potters.

Four large runs in the first inning—a result of hits by Kirby Laughlin, Toots Hrvatin, Wayne Hahn and Jim Garrett—got things under way well for the winners.

Two were added in the fourth and one in the sixth before rain stopped the contest at 7-1 in the seventh.

Bill Ritchie did the hurling for the Center, winning his fourth game in five tries. He walked three and fanned none. Pitcher Bill Bennett of the Lunchers was tagged for 11 hits, gave up one walk and fanned one hitter.

The Italian club came through with a neat victory over the Fire-

The big scoring frame was the second when the IAC clubbed four of its five hits, scored seven runs and completely demoralized the losers. Tut Guappone, Bill Guappone, Catcher Donofrio and Left Fielder Taucher banded out the safeties. Three walks and two errors helped things along.

No change was noted in the leading batters in the loop. Howdy Kerr of Demings, Dale Ritchie of the China and Emmett Brudery of Demings all being idle.

Kirby Laughlin led the hit parade Thursday, getting two for three and having a third hit cancelled in the rained out inning.

Two-Hit Games Mark Play In American As Crescents Suffer Third Loss Of Year

A pair of two-hit pitching performances marked American league play Thursday as the Ohio Grill defeated Leetonia 4-2, to move into undisputed second place, and the Jaycees tripped Sip N Bite 11-3 at Centennial park.

In a game that was called at the end of five innings because of rain, the Grillers edged Leetonia in a thriller, as Jack King held the Crescents to a pair of hits.

The winners tallied one run in the first inning on a wild pitch, which followed a single and a walk. Leetonia came back, however, in the second and scored two on a home run by Ned Kegelmeyer with a mate on base.

Then it was the Grill's turn, and they garnered two more runs in the third on an error, a sacrifice, and successive singles by Les Knepp and "Pinky" King. That was enough for Jack King to work on and he held the losers scoreless for the balance of the tilt.

King retired the league's leading hitter, Pat Mancuso, in both appearances at the plate to drop his average to .480, just two points over second place Bob Miller of Sinclair.

King struck out five and walked two, thus running his "K" total to 97 for the season. His opponent, Ralph Clunen, was touched for six hits and one walk. He whiffed three.

"Whitey" King notched two hits in three trips to pace the Grill. The win moved the Ohio Grill into second place, one and one-half games back of Mullins and a full game ahead of Leetonia.

Twirler John McQuiston had no trouble in disposing of the Sip N Bite. He was touched for a single and a double, while striking out 10 and walking six. His strike out total stands at 86 for the year.

The Jaycees did the bulk of their scoring in the third inning, when they pushed across six runs. In that inning four hits, three walks and one error provided the tallies.

The losers scored all their runs in the second canto, during one of McQuiston's wild spells, on one base hit and three walks.

One of the leading hitters for the Jaycees was McQuiston, himself, with two for three. This spree raised his batting average to a tidy .414.

Jack Patterson with three for four, Lloyd Brunner with two for four and Les Tetlow with two for three were the other heavy hitters for the Jaycees.

The Jaycees thus move up into a fourth place tie with the Eagles, two games back of Leetonia.

COACHES: Mike Schuller, Mullins, and Harry Coy, Electric Furnace.

Managers of teams representing both American and National leagues in Salem's Class A softball setup met Thursday night at the Memorial building and chose the All-star teams found on this page. In addition, the pilots drafted plans for the first Salem inter-league All-Star game, to be played at Reilly field on the night of July 31.

The tilt will be a nine-inning affair, preceded by a seven-inning preliminary game between undefeated Goodrich of Class B and an All-Star lineup chosen from the balance of the junior circuit.

Price for the game will be fifty cents for adults and a dime for children. The entire proceeds of the game will go to form a medical fund to aid players injured in city softball play.

The managers, in addition to selecting the players, also chose three umpires to work the game. The three, Jim Jackson, Ray Reasbeck and Pat Boien, will each work three innings behind the plate and six on the bases.

The final choices for the two teams gave the present league leaders and runners up the bulk of the positions. In the American loop, Mullins placed six men on the 22 man lineup. Leetonia checked in with five places, Sinclair four, Ohio Grill four, Jaycees one, Slip N Bite one and Electric Furnace one. The Eagles and VFW failed to place any men on the squad.

League leading Demings and the Salem China each have five men on the National league team. The Bowling Center has four, Saxons two, Recreation two, I. A. C. two, and Salem Lunch two. Firestone and Washingtonville were left out, placing no one on the team.

The managers and coaches for the two teams are as follows: American league—Ralph Mancuso, Leetonia, manager; Mike Schuller, Mullins, and Harry Coy, Electric Furnace, coaches. National league—Al Sanders, China, manager; Earl "Wink" Miller, Firestone, and Al Linder, Saxons, coaches. Each pitcher in the "dream tilt" will be permitted to pitch but three innings, thus assuring at least six of the All-Star twirlers a chance to show their wares. It was decided, also, that the men on the other positions could play four and one-half innings, at the discretion of their managers.

Couple Charged With Trying To Sell Baby

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12 — A middle-aged couple was accused in circuit court yesterday of attempting to sell a baby boy they had adopted for $1,000.

The baby, 19 month old Francis Schachtschuber, was adopted 15 months ago by Charles Schachtschuber, 55, and his wife, Pearl, 46, of suburban Des Plaines and is now with Leroy and Stella Lorenz of Chicago.

Attorney Robert E. Cherry told Judge Robert J. Dunne that the Schachtschubers "attempted to sell this baby for $1,000" to the Lorenzes.

"Now they realize they made a bad deal because these people can't pay it. They are asking for the return of the child. We contend that this is strictly an adoption racket by the plaintiffs (the Schachtschubers) to make money."

Cherry was representing the Lorenzes. "People can't contract to sell their children," Judge Dunne said. He ordered that the Lorenzes keep the child until July 22, pending a social service investigation.

Boy's Lung Punctured By Tree Limb, Victim Lives

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 12—A tree limb 1 1/2 inches in diameter pierced the lung cavity six inches when 13-year-old Joseph Bickel, Jr.,

fell from a swinging cable into a brush-filled ravine in suburban Iroquois park here yesterday. Almost miraculously, said Dr. J. S. Harter, the stick spread the ribs without breaking them as it entered the lung cavity and pushed the lung aside. X-rays failed to disclose even a serious bruise internally, the doctor added. Dr. Harter, who removed the one-foot long stick, closed the wound and inserted a suction tube to keep the lung expanded until the puncture heals.

The boy was reported resting comfortably at St. Joseph's hospital. "The others started to pull it out but I told them to let it alone," said Joseph. That probably prevented serious shock, said Dr. Harter.

Yank Slays Russian

The announcement said United States and Soviet authorities had determined that the American constabulary trooper "fired in self defense" when the Russian charged him with a fixed bayonet.

Couple Charged With Trying To Sell Baby

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12 — A middle-aged couple was accused in circuit court yesterday of attempting to sell a baby boy they had adopted for $1,000.

The baby, 19 month old Francis Schachtschuber, was adopted 15 months ago by Charles Schachtschuber, 55, and his wife, Pearl, 46, of suburban Des Moines and is now with Leroy and Stella Lorenz of Chicago.

Attorney Robert E. Cherry told Judge Robert J. Dunnet that the Schachtschubers "attempted to sell this baby for $1,000" to the Lorenzes.

"Now they realize they made a bad deal because these people can't pay it. They are asking for the return of the child. We contend that this is strictly an adoption racket by the plaintiffs (the Schachtschubers) to make money."

Cherry was representing the Lorenzes.

"People can't contract to sell their children," Judge Dunnet said. He ordered that the Lorenzes keep the child until July 22, pending a social service investigation.

Boy's Lung Punctured By Tree Limb, Victim Lives

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 12—A tree limb 1 1/4 inches in diameter pierced the lung cavity six inches when 13-year-old Joseph Bickel, Jr.,

fell from a swinging cable into a brush-filled ravine in suburban Iroquois park here yesterday.

Almost miraculously, said Dr. J. S. Harter, the stick spread the ribs without breaking them as it entered the lung cavity and pushed the doctor added. Dr. Harter, who removed the one-foot long stick, closed the wound and inserted a suction tube to keep the lung expanded until the puncture heals.

The boy was reported resting comfortably at St. Joseph's hospital.

"The others started to pull it out but I told them to let it alone," said Joseph. That probably prevented serious shock, said Dr. Harter.

The announcement said United States and Soviet authorities had determined that the American constabulary trooper "fired in self defense" when the Russian charged him with a fixed bayonet.
